My dear Mr. Garrison

I had hoped to have had the pleasure of joining you at the Congress in Paris
next week but find myself unable.

My heart will be with you, praying for your success.

A dear old friend
yours - James Cathery Esq. Newbury is on his way to join you

He is a mother-hearted man, full of zeal and energy in all good works.

He writes me that he earnestly desires that something should be done in Paris, next week
to advance the interests of our Temperance
If the way is open, I have told him that I am sure with you and
dear Mr. Thompson
would both cordially cooperate.

We shall then our other American friends - as well as English, who would take heart. I do hope that an opportunity
may be offered)

Wishing you a very pleasant time after the Congress
and hoping that you may attain
both in safety
in order

I remain

Ever right truly

Yours

The W. J. Parker

P. S. Most assured the boys join me in ever loving regards.

W. Parker is not well. He is in West of England
resting & recruiting
I think. Yours

Mr Steinthal - Mr
Candy and all the friends here
sent love to you and yours,
God bless you!
Truly

Thos. H. Barker
